

The Photography Group (Kevin Lucas)

At the tail end of November the Photography Group risked the chance of rain and embarked on a walk around Spitalfields and Shoreditch. In the end the rain stayed away but it was a very overcast and grey day. Whilst this was a walk heavy on amazing "Street Art", we also encountered homeless living which highlighted the more depressing side of London, just a stone's throw from the vibrant Spitalfields Market and City of London. Interestingly, but perhaps not surprisingly, Brick Lane has taken on the role of a major advertisement for the film "Wicked for Good" with the Yellow Brick Road taking a prominent role.

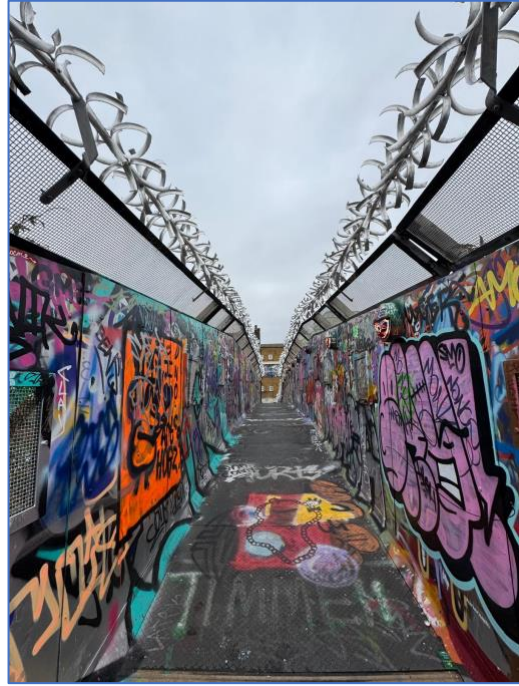

Here is a selection of photographs taken by Group members.:

This was our last outing for 2025, but the Group will be enjoying a New Year lunch in January 2026. Outings will resume in February with an exciting calendar of events being planned for the year.

To join the Photography Group, no special expertise or equipment is normally required and members with no interest in photography are welcome to join us purely for the outings. We have visited some very interesting locations in London.
